GLENDALE SANITARIUM CLASS OF GRADUATING NURSES GET DIPLOMAS AMID MOST IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

'For Others' Is Prominently Featured In Evening's Decorations And In Address Delivered By Dr. W. B. Holden Of Portland, Oregon

SURROUNDED by myriads of flowers and greenery, the sixteen white clad members of the graduating class of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital Training School last night received their diplomas as awards for three years of work and study. Approximately 400 relatives, friends and admirers of the young ladies attended the commencement exercises, which were held at the Seventh-day Adventist church at 240 North Isabel street. Before the evening's program started the auditorium was filled to overflowing and even after the several "wings" and departmental rooms of the church had been occupied several score of interested onlookers had to be satisfied with standing room.

The appropriately selected motto, "For Others" was significant in all of the evening's activities, the words of which were beautifully inscribed in pink flowers on a spacious background of smilax, which was formed in the shape of a large tablet and suspended above the rostrum before a strong spotlight.

On the stage and practically surrounding the graduate nurses were bouquets of exquisitely arranged varicolored carnations, roses and numerous other garden treasures in artistic combination with groupings of ever verdant ferns and shrubbery.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the advance guides of honor entered the front portals of the church to the "Triumphal March" which was ably rendered by Mrs. Charles E. Swartzfager and A. Belle Johnson. After the seventy undergraduates had marched to the front of the auditorium, a clear pathway was made to the platform and the nurses slowly marched to their places on the left side of the speakers.

Program Is Given

An instrumental trio, played by Mr. Charles E. Swartzfager, violin; A. Belle Johnson, piano, and Edwin J. Moore, cello, was then rendered, after which Dr. William H. Johnson led the audience in prayer.

This was followed by a baritone solo beautifully sung by Jess W. Fair.

The commencement address, "For Others," given by Dr. W. B. Holden of Portland, Ore., was a commendatory message and excerpts follow:

"In life there are two great employers; we either work for ourselves or for others. It is human instinct to work for self. To serve others is divine. The great controversy between Christ and Satan is waged around the principle of working for others. All of the great differences between nations and men have arisen because mankind have felt it more

Plans Are Discussed for Year's Work at Pacific Ave. School

The members of the executive board of the Pacific Avenue Parent-Teacher association met yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Mae Rosenberg, 462 Rivendale Drive. Plans were discussed for the coming year's work and also possible candidates for chairmen of the different committees were considered, although no appointments were made.

Those present were Mrs. W. E. Farlander, vice-president; Mrs. Grover Adams, secretary; Mrs. George H. Moore, treasurer; Mrs. Mark Russell, historian; Mrs. Leslie Tronsier, parliamentarian; Mrs. Rosenberg, president; Mrs. Fannie O. Stone, principal of the Pacific avenue school.

A very enjoyable event was the celebration of the 75th birthday anniversary of Albert Horn, Sr., which was held recently at his home, 431 West Broadway. After partaking of a bountiful dinner and extending congratulations to the host and hostess, the guests were entertained by music and singing.

Those present included the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horn, Sr., their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith and little daughter Helen, Rev. H. J. Horn, H. W. SIX FISHERMEN ARE FINED

It pays to observe the law, even if it is a "fishy" one. This is the conclusion which has been arrived at by D. A. Marcus, J. A. Bowen, J. W. Reed, J. Gorman, F. E. Spicer and E. Churdy of Los Angeles, who were arrested Sunday, August 7, by Deputy Game Warden Harry Merrill, who found them fishing in Chatsworth reservoir without a fishing license and also found that they had in their possession bass under the legal size limit. They were taken before Judge Chambers in the Los Angeles Police Court and fined $10 each, according to County Game Warden Sturtz J. Flintham.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Flagg of 149 South Pacific avenue enjoyed a surprise celebration of their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary at their home Sunday night.

The affair was arranged for them by their daughter Gladys.

After the arrival of the guests a short musical program was given by Miss Gladys Flagg who sang "I Love You Truly," and a violin selection from the bridal chorus from "Lohe-gin," by Miss Thelma Strange, who was accompanied on the piano by her sister, Miss Bess Strange.

Other musical numbers were rendered later in the evening and refreshments were served.

Norma Talmadge Is
Glendale for Tonight

"Panthea," a Selznick picture with Norma Talmadge as the star at the Glendale Theatre, today tells the story of a young Russian pianist, who, suspected of Nihilism, escapes to England, where she falls in love with a struggling composer.

They are married and settle in Paris, where Panthea's husband tries in vain to get a hearing for his opera. She then beguiles a baron in aiding with its production.

Her sacrifice brings about the triumphant production of her husband's opera, but at the moment of his great success he discovers the manner in which Panthea induced her friend, the baron, to exert his influence.

This situation leads to one of the strongest dramatic climaxes ever seen on the screen and in the end Panthea and her husband are reconciled just as the long arm of the Russian secret police stretches out from Petrograd to seize its prey in Paris.

"The Diamond Queen" in its ninth chapter, a brand-new Rolin comedy and the latest Pathé Review round out the bill.

MUCH FRUIT BEING STOLEN

Fruit vendors on Colorado boulevard have suffered a good many losses this summer from thieves who come in the night and carry away large parts of their stock. A week ago over $30 worth of crates melons were stolen from a Japanese gardener on East Colorado and last night the entire stock of Mrs. M. L. Anderson at 1450 East Colorado was taken. The fruit that has been taken is not exposed on the highway, but put away inside the private yards of the owners. Such large amounts of fruit cannot be used by individuals, but must be finding its way to some other market, the police say.

HAS PARTY FOR DAUGHTER

Mrs. Grace Corbaley of 1450 East Colorado boulevard entertained recently in honor of the eleventh birthday of her little daughter, Patricia, with a very pretty lawn party to which fourteen little girls were invited. The guests were schoolmates of Patricia who will enter the Intermediate school with her in September. A number of games were played and dainty refreshments served under the trees.

Alhambra Anxious to Learn How Glendale's C. of C. Gets Success

Mrs. Fred Brenen Gillenwaters headed a committee of Alhambra women who visited Glendale yesterday to learn the methods of making a Chamber of Commerce the success that it is here.

They were appointed to report back to the Alhambra Chamber on what to do to revive civic spirit there—and from the remarkable progress made by Glendale, this city was used as an example.

Secretary James M. Rhoades, of the local organization, devoted the afternoon to showing how and where Glendale had progressed. He showed them the park and swimming pool planned here, the great new reservoirs, the sewage system plans and other municipal projects which the Chamber is backing.

Work of the local organization was outlined and the Alhambra women left here believing that similar methods could accomplish wonders in their city.
